

FREUD QUIZ

- 1 How many pictures of Freud himself are there in the museum?

Which one do you think was his favourite?

Where did you find the picture on the right?

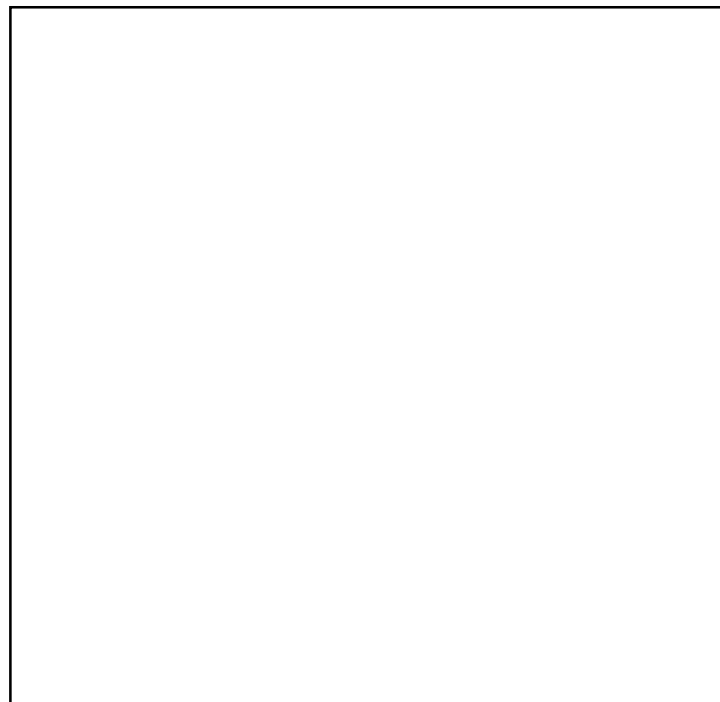

- 2 Freud wrote a book called "The Interpretation of Dreams". What other people do you know who tried to interpret dreams?

- 3 There are many pictures in the museum of places that were important to Freud.

In one of these places Freud wrote that he had discovered "the secret of dreams"

Draw a picture of where you think it was.

Why do you think it was this place in particular that inspired Freud to work out his theory?

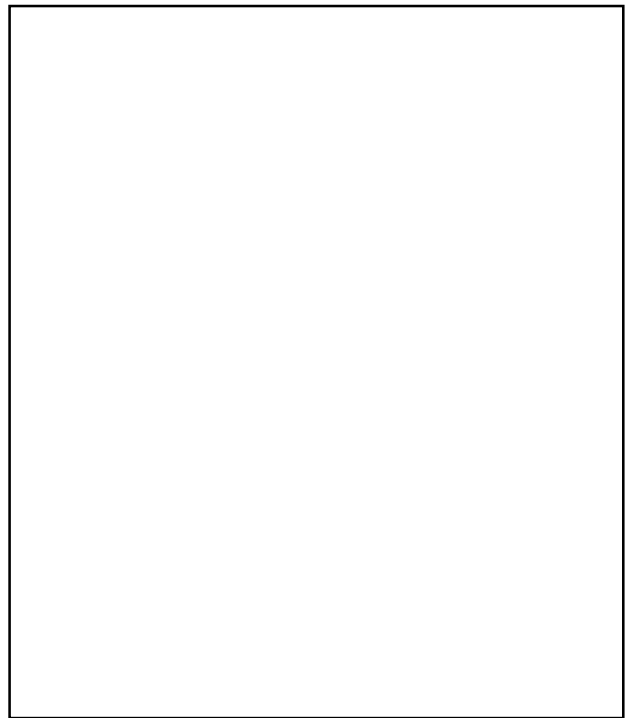

- 4 Go into the Anna Freud room upstairs.

What do you think Anna Freud might have dreamed of when she was a little girl?

Find something in the room to support your answer.

5 Draw a picture of the chair behind Freud's desk.

What do you think it represents?

represents:

what does it remind you of?

what does it look like?

what do you think it stands for?

6 Think of the name of your favourite song or film.

either (a) write down the name in picture language or (b) work out a charade too show other groups

7 Imagine that you had to spend a night in Freud's study.
Make up a (short!) dream that you might have during the night.
Write down the dream or tell it to your teacher or parent.

8 Imagine that Freud's study was a dream

What do you think it might represent for Freud himself?