

FREUD QUIZ

1 How many pictures of Freud himself are there in the museum?

Which one do you think was his favourite?

Where did you find the picture on the right?

2 Freud collected lots of objects from ancient Egypt, Greece, and Rome.

Why do you think he collected so many objects?

Draw the one you think was his favourite.

3

Draw the chair behind Freud's desk.

What do you think it represents?

represents:

what does it remind you of?

what does it look like?

what do you think it stands for?

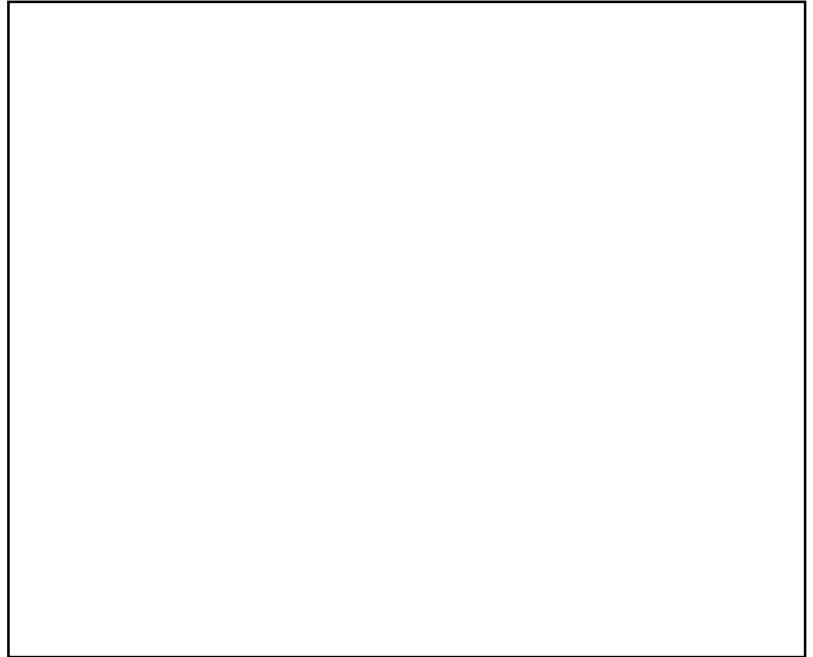

4 One of Freud's patients was called the 'Wolfman'.

Can you find two pictures in the museum painted by the Wolfman?

Why did he draw the pictures?

Draw a copy of the Wolfman's picture in the box.

What fairy stories do you know with wolves in them?

5 Freud wrote a book called "The Interpretation of Dreams". What other people do you know who tried to interpret dreams?

6 Imagine that you had to spend a night in Freud's study. Make up a (short!) dream that you might have during the night. Write down the story or tell it to your teacher or parent.

7 Freud had six children - three boys and three girls. One of the girls became a psychoanalyst like her father.

Which one was it - the oldest the middle or the youngest tick the right box

Why do you think she wanted to be a psychoanalyst?